Read the explanations and examples. Then complete the practice before looking at the answers.

1. Would you like to...?

A polite way to offer or invite.

Example: Would you like to sit here?

2. Yes, I would.

A short, polite answer when you accept an offer.

Example: Yes, I would like some water.

3. In the mornings

Use this for a regular time: many mornings.

Example: I study in the mornings.

4. At nine tomorrow?

Repeat the key time to check it.

Example: At six tomorrow?

5. I’ll be here at nine.

I’ll means I will. It is a promise about the future.

Example: I’ll be at school at eight.

6. What should I do first?

Ask for the first step in a new task.

Example: What should I do first at work?

Grammar focus: would and will

Use would in Would you like...? and Yes, I would. Use will in I will be here. In speech, I will becomes I’ll. Do not say I am be here at nine.
