Two Streets Away

Episode 14 | Complete transcript and listening practice

The voices in this podcast are AI-generated to help you understand and practise English.

First listening - natural speed

Leo: Hi, Dad.

Tom: Hi, Leo.

Leo: Can I come in?

Tom: Yes.

Tom: Come in.

Leo: Thank you.

Tom: You live two streets away.

Leo: I know.

Leo: But I do not come here often.

Tom: No.

Leo: I have an invitation for you.

Tom: For me?

Leo: Yes.

Leo: Are you free on Sunday?

Tom: Sunday?

Leo: Come for lunch.

Tom: Is lunch at the café?

Leo: Yes.

Tom: I see.

Slow listening - Dive In

In the episode, Peter takes the same conversation one line at a time. Listen for these ideas:

Can I come in? is a polite question at a door.

Come in. means you can enter.

Often means many times.

Are you free on Sunday? asks if somebody has time.

I see. means “I understand.”

Shadowing practice

Can I come in?
Pause for four seconds and repeat.

Are you free on Sunday?
Pause for four seconds and repeat.

Come for lunch.
Pause for four seconds and repeat.

After the shadowing section, listen again to the complete natural-speed conversation. It is the same conversation you heard at the beginning.