Two Streets Away

Episode 14 | Vocabulary, grammar and practice guide

Vocabulary

two streets away - very near: only two streets separate the two homes.

come in - enter a room or a home.

often - many times; regularly.

invitation - a request asking someone to come to an event or meal.

free - available; having time to do something.

I see - I understand.

Useful sentences for real life

Can I come in? Use it at a door before you enter.

Are you free on Sunday? Change the day: Are you free on Friday?

Come for lunch. Use it to invite someone to a meal.

Pay Attention

Come in and come for lunch use the same verb, but they mean different things. Come in is for entering a place. Come for lunch is an invitation to share a meal.

Use at for a place: at the café. Use on for a day: on Sunday.

Practice - complete or choose

1. Complete: Can I come ___?

2. Complete: You live two streets ___.

3. Choose: “Often” means many times / a place.

4. Complete: I have an invitation ___ you.

5. Complete: Are you free ___ Sunday?

6. Choose: We say at / on the café.

7. Complete: Come ___ lunch.

8. Write the missing word: Is lunch at the ___?

9. Choose: “I see” means I understand / I cannot come.

10. Complete: I do not come here ___.

11. Put the words in order: free / you / are / Sunday / on ?

12. Write one invitation for a friend using “Come for ...”.

Answers

1. in. 2. away. 3. many times. 4. for. 5. on. 6. at. 7. for. 8. café. 9. I understand. 10. often. 11. Are you free on Sunday? 12. Example: Come for lunch.

Listen again with the transcript. The words are easier to remember because they belong to Leo and Tom’s story.