Your Café, Not Mine

Episode 15 | Vocabulary, grammar and practice guide

Vocabulary

photo - a picture made with a camera.

chair - something you sit on.

old - from a time before now; not new.

table - furniture with a flat top.

every morning - each morning.

sat - the past of sit.

Useful sentences for real life

It is your café now. Change the noun: It is your turn now.

I like the old table. Change the noun: I like the old lamp.

Where is the old table now? Change the noun: Where is my bag now?

Pay Attention

Your comes before a thing that belongs to you: your café. My comes before a thing that belongs to me: my café. Do not say you café or I café.

Practice - complete or choose

1. Complete: It is ___ café now.

2. Complete: It is ___ café.

3. Choose: “Old” means new / from before now.

4. Complete: I ___ there every morning.

5. Choose: “Sat” is the past of sit / say.

6. Complete: I did not ___ that.

7. Complete: Where is the old ___ now?

8. Complete: We have new ___.

9. Write a kind negative: Not at the ___.

10. Choose: We say your table / you table.

11. Put in order: café / your / it / now / is.

12. Write one sentence with “I like the old ...”.

Answers

1. your. 2. my. 3. from before now. 4. sat. 5. sit. 6. know. 7. table. 8. chairs. 9. Example: Not at the café. 10. your table. 11. It is your café now. 12. Example: I like the old lamp.

Listen again with the transcript. The language becomes easier to remember because it belongs to Leo and Tom’s story.