You’re Here

Episode 21 | Complete transcript and listening practice

The voices in this podcast are AI-generated to help you understand and practise English.

Natural-speed conversation

Leo: Hi, Dad.

Tom: Hi.

Leo: You’re here.

Tom: I said ten minutes.

Leo: Yes, ten minutes.

Tom: The table is nice.

Leo: Where would you like to sit?

Tom: Near the window.

Tom: I can see the morning light.

Leo: Would you like coffee?

Tom: Yes, please.

Leo: And toast?

Tom: Yes, thank you.

Leo: I am glad you came.

Tom: I am here.

Tom: I brought a photo.

Leo: A photo?

Tom: Yes. I want to show you.

Slow listening notes

You’re here. is a warm way to welcome someone who has arrived.

Near the window tells us the place is close to the window.

I am glad you came is for one visit that has already happened.

Shadowing

You’re here.
Pause for four seconds.

Would you like coffee?
Pause for four seconds.

I am glad you came.
Pause for four seconds.