You’re Here

Episode 21 | Vocabulary, grammar and practice guide

Vocabulary

you’re here - you have arrived.

near - close to a place or thing.

morning light - light in the early part of the day.

brought - past form of bring; carried something to this place.

Useful English

You’re here. Welcome someone who has arrived.

Would you like coffee? Offer a drink politely.

I am glad you came. Say that you are happy about one past visit.

Pay Attention

Use came for a visit that is finished: I am glad you came. Use come for a general idea: Please come tomorrow.

Practice

1. Complete: You’re ___.
2. Choose: Near the window means close to / far from the window.
3. Complete: Would you like ___?
4. Complete: Yes, ___.
5. Complete: I am glad you ___.
6. Choose: came is present / past.
7. Complete: I brought a ___.
8. Put in order: like / would / coffee / you ?
9. Complete: I want to ___ you.
10. Choose: “I am here” means I have arrived / I am leaving.
11. Complete: The morning ___.
12. Write the polite reply: Would you like toast? Yes, ___.

Answers

1. here. 2. close to. 3. coffee. 4. please. 5. came. 6. past. 7. photo. 8. Would you like coffee? 9. show. 10. I have arrived. 11. light. 12. please.