Introduction and instructions

Peter: Welcome to Shadowing Lab.

Peter: You have travelled with Maya and Leo through ten episodes.

Peter: Today, you will practise fifty sentences from their story.

Peter: Shadowing is simple.

Peter: First, you listen to a short sentence.

Peter: Then, you copy the words, the rhythm, and the feeling.

Peter: You do not need to be perfect.

Peter: You only need to try.

Peter: First, you will hear the original voices from Maya and Leo's story at natural speed.

Peter: Then, I will say each sentence slowly.

Peter: After every sentence, you will have four seconds to repeat.

Peter: Do not speak before you hear the model.

Peter: Listen, copy, and keep going.

Peter: First, listen to the sentences in the story.

Peter: Do not repeat yet.

Peter: Just listen.

Peter: Now, shadow with me.

Peter: Listen first.

Peter: Then repeat in the four-second pause.

Original-story montage at natural speed

Maya and Leo - reused approved dialogue clips: Can you help me? / It works! / Yes. I need a job. / Do you need someone? / Could you say the time again, please? / Here it is. / I need a job now. / I don't know how to make coffee yet. / I made a mistake. / I'll be here at nine.

Pay Attention

Peter: Pay attention.

Peter: English often joins small words together.

Peter: I'm means I am.

Peter: I'll means I will.

Peter: Don't means do not.

Peter: Listen to the ending in locked.

Peter: It ends with a clear t sound.

Peter: And remember: yet means not now, but possibly later.

Peter: Maya cannot make coffee yet.

Peter: She can learn.

Final natural-speed challenge

Peter: Now, hear the story one more time at natural speed.

Peter: Listen for the phrases you know.

Peter: You do not need to repeat now.

Peter: Just follow Maya's journey.

Maya and Leo: The same ten original approved dialogue clips return here at natural speed.

Closing

Peter: Well done.

Peter: You have practised fifty useful sentences from Chapter One.

Peter: Download the Chapter One Shadowing Study Book in the episode description.

Peter: It includes every phrase, vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, and exercises with answers.

Peter: Thank you for listening, and see you in the next episode.

Peter: The voices in this episode are created with artificial intelligence to support clear understanding and English learning.
